- ### Good cycling practices
1. Always carry an ID card or passport.
  2. Drive responsibly and with respect for other road users and without having consumed alcohol or drugs.
  3. Helmets are compulsory for everyone on the road, and in town for children under 16 years of age.
  4. Do not use headphones to listen to iPod or radio or use a mobile phone.
  5. Never ride crowded together, always in a line of 2 at the most, and on roads without a hard shoulder, try to ride in a line of 1.
  6. On the road, always drive on the hard shoulder or, failing that, on the right-hand side of the road. Do not drive on motorways or dual carriageways.
  7. Make yourself visible in low visibility situations.
  8. The group of cyclists may be accompanied by a vehicle duly signalled (V-22 sign) and on the right-hand side.
  9. In town, use cycle lanes and cycle paths and, failing that, ride in the right-hand lane of the road and never ride on sidewalks.
  10. Do not throw away waste or packaging. Respect the environment.
